Probably the best GSI I have ever had
greatest person of all time
Jordan is extremely sweet, accommodating, and understanding; she deeply cares and is able to provide a comprehensive learning experience.
thank you for all your help in office hours and also in student support!
very effective.
discussion timing could be better
Solid, and very understanding of the students. Very helpful.
nice GSI!!
<-- Jordan dropped this

Extremely helpful and welcoming, Jordan fosters the most inclusive environment I have ever felt in a course, and I appreciate all the flexibility they offer.
Did a great job handling DSP accommodations
Jordan is one of the best GSIs!! She is easy to talk with and always open to explain and repeat topics when in doubt, I knew her from 61A and I'm glad she is in 161 now
greatest person of all time
Jordan was very accessible and kind, but they weren't always prepared to answer questions. Sometimes they would preface an OH question by warning students they didn't prepare or know how helpful they would be able to be. I found myself hoping other GSIs would answer my questions instead because they would take a really long time to explain things that I wasn't confused about, and when I asked about what I needed help with, they would often seem just as confused as I was.
Thank you for being so available and supportive
She did a great job explaining topics to people who have a hard time understanding or are behind.
Awesome student support and accommodations.
nice climate!!
Jordan always goes above and beyond. One of the projects for this class required a 1 on 1 meeting to talk about your design and I specifically chose to schedule my meeting with Jordan because I knew she would be the sweetest and most understanding GSI. I have bad anxiety when it comes to 1 on 1 meetings and almost had a panic attack during my meeting, but Jordan reassured me that I could step out and do whatever I needed to do and made me feel safe and understood. Definitely my favorite GSI and she has helped me more than she'll ever know. Thanks, Jordan :)
makes a very open environment to encourage discussion but seems to not be too familiar with the content
