Jordan was great at delivering the content, though her lectures felt a bit dry at times.

Really helpful and answers on Ed quickly
It was often hard to follow Jordan's lectures because she spoke a bit fast, especially when reading from the slides. Jordan's interactive and more informal style made lectures interesting and "more fun" but sometimes it was hard to distinguish when she was ad-libbing versus actually delivering content. Her additional comments, especially during demos, made it a bit hard to follow.
Phenomenal instructor. Seriously very talented at lecturing and teaching. Jordan should consider a long-term career as a professor or in something public speaking related which is something every student I mention to agrees with. Very good at enunciating and repeating key ideas during lectures.
Jordan is very welcoming and understanding and encouraged asking questions, I did not hesitate to ask her questions or for help when needed. I appreciate how she communicates the concepts clearly and smoothly during lectures! She is also very active in responding to students' concerns and coding questions on Ed, the responses were always informative which was quite helpful. Thank you
A great lecturer!

I thought Jordan did very well during her lectures which I thought were the most difficult when explaining foundational information that can be confusing as students lack the initial intuition to understand the concepts.
I am so grateful for her understanding of my personal mental health setbacks!!!
Really nice and kind. I also felt represented by her.

Explains lecture material very clearly and engagingly.
Responds to emails very quickly whenever I had doubts
Jordan really made an effort to make everyone feel included in CS; great energy during lectures.
Jordans encouraging words made me feel valued and seen as a person rather than just a student.
She definitely made lecture a lot less boring and more entertaining at times!
